Mind the Gap!

Parul Gupta

Parul Gupta, alumni of Leeds University was in town to promote her newly launched the website-www.mindthegap-uk.com

She graduated in English literature from the University of Leeds in 2006. Prior to this, she studied literature at St Xavier's College in Calcutta University. She then returned to India and picked up a job as an education consultant.

She also wrote a book called 'The international student's guide to UK'. The book is based on her experience in England. It is a compilation of her experience and is now available as e-book on her website.

She was always interested in writing and pursued it more sincerely after she got married. She has also worked in advertising as a copy-writer and also as a content writer for websites.

Parul has also worked as a GMAT/ GRE/ SAT and TOEFL trainer

The website guides children on how to handle life in UK, both, money wise and study wise health wise, kitchen, surviving flat mates, travel wise and nifty knick knacks.

The website has also launched an admission consulting week.

This wing helps one chose a university that matches one's personality, academic interest, preferences and priorities. All this takes a great deal of time, research which MTG can assist you in.
